Report:

On July 14, 2023, a seminar on "NEP Implementation in Perspective of GGDC Kalna-I" was organized at the Government General Degree College, Kalna-I, from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm. The session was led by the esteemed speaker, Dr. Tanmay Das, Assistant Professor of Physics, who shared his insights on the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) at GGDC Kalna-I.

Dr. Das delivered an in-depth analysis of the NEP's potential impact on the college's curriculum, teaching methodologies, and overall educational goals. He discussed how the policy emphasizes a more flexible and multidisciplinary approach to education, fostering holistic development for students. Dr. Das also highlighted the significant role faculty members would play in implementing these changes effectively, thus enriching the learning environment for students.

The seminar attracted enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members, who appreciated Dr. Das's thoughtful observations. The session concluded with an engaging Q&A, allowing attendees to discuss the practical aspects of NEP implementation within their institution. Overall, the seminar proved to be an insightful event, enhancing awareness and understanding of NEP's role in advancing education at GGDC Kalna-I.

Report:

As part of the Induction Programme 2023, a seminar on Gender Sensitization was held on August 8, 2023, from 12:30 pm to 1:00 pm. The session was honored by the presence of the esteemed speaker, Smt. Soma Chowdhury, Advocate at the Calcutta High Court, Kolkata, who delivered an insightful and thought-provoking presentation on the significance of gender sensitivity in both professional and social environments.

Smt. Chowdhury began the seminar by discussing the concept of gender sensitivity, emphasizing the importance of respecting and acknowledging gender differences to foster an inclusive environment. She highlighted various social norms and practices that often lead to gender-based biases, urging students and faculty members to be conscious of these and work towards eliminating them. Her speech provided a comprehensive understanding of the legal aspects of gender discrimination and the available rights and protections under Indian law, drawing attention to real-life cases and scenarios from her experience as an advocate.

The interactive session allowed students and faculty to ask questions and discuss issues related to gender equality, discrimination, and the role of awareness in creating positive change. Attendees expressed their gratitude to Smt. Chowdhury for her valuable insights, which helped deepen their understanding of the role they play in building a gender-sensitive society.

The seminar concluded on a positive note, with attendees committed to promoting gender equality and inclusivity in all spheres of life. The induction program coordinators extended thanks to Smt. Chowdhury for her time and impactful contribution, making this session a meaningful addition to the induction schedule.

Report:

A workshop on "FAMEX (Familiarization Exercise) / Community Awareness Programme" was held on 8th November 2023 at 11:00 am. The event was conducted by the National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) team, Kolkata in collaboration with the District Administration of Purba Bardhaman. The session aimed to educate attendees on disaster preparedness, response techniques, and community safety protocols.

The NDRF team provided valuable insights into disaster management, focusing on equipping students and faculty members with skills and knowledge to effectively respond during emergencies. Practical demonstrations and interactive discussions helped participants understand essential safety measures and the importance of readiness in crisis situations.

The workshop was attended by students, faculty members, and other staff, all actively participating in the awareness activities. This initiative not only heightened awareness about disaster management but also fostered a sense of responsibility among attendees to contribute to community safety.

Programme Name: Seminar on Departmental Lecture of Bengali

Date: 12.12.2023

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

On December 12, 2023, a departmental seminar titled "Departmental Lecture of Bengali" was held from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm, offering an enriching experience for both students and faculty members interested in Bengali literature and linguistics. The event was graced by the esteemed speakers, Dr. Prabir Kumar Baidya, Assistant Professor of Bengali at Palashi College, Nadia, and Dr. Jayanta Biswas, Assistant Professor of Bengali at Sir Rashbehari Ghosh Mahavidyalaya, Khandagosh, Purba Bardhaman.

Dr. Baidya engaged the audience with his in-depth discussion on "Bengali Theatre of the 19th Century," illuminating its historical context, influence on modern Bengali culture, and the socio-political themes that shaped its narrative style. His insights were highly appreciated, especially for highlighting the lasting impact of 19th-century theatre on contemporary Bengali drama.

Following this, Dr. Jayanta Biswas delivered a thought-provoking lecture on "Bengali Spelling," emphasizing the linguistic evolution of Bengali orthography. He addressed common challenges in Bengali spelling, its standardization process, and the cultural significance of spelling conventions in preserving the language's integrity.

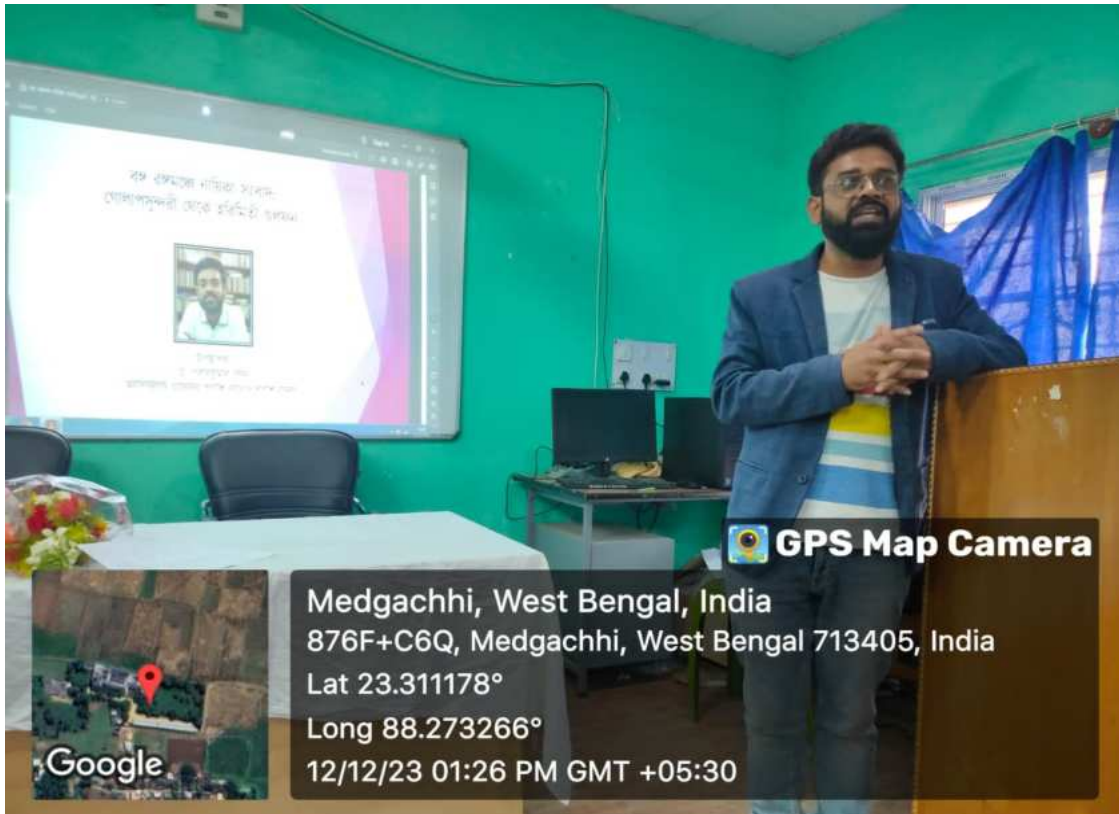

The seminar concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where students and faculty members had the opportunity to interact with the speakers. The event was a success, fostering a deeper appreciation for Bengali language and literature.

Programme Name: Seminar on Entrepreneurship Development for Rural Youth

Date: 02.01.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

As part of Student's Week celebrations, a seminar titled "Entrepreneurship Development for Rural Youth" was conducted on January 2, 2024, at 11:00 am. The seminar aimed to inspire and guide young minds towards self-employment and entrepreneurial activities, especially in rural areas. Dr. Madham Chandra Dhara, the esteemed ex-Joint Director of Agriculture Rice Development and Water Management, was invited as the keynote speaker.

In his insightful lecture, Dr. Dhara highlighted the importance of entrepreneurship for rural youth, emphasizing how it can foster economic growth, reduce urban migration, and improve local livelihoods. He shared his experiences and outlined key strategies for establishing successful ventures in the agricultural and allied sectors, adapting to regional needs, and utilizing local resources effectively.

The seminar was well-attended by students and faculty members, who participated actively in the interactive session that followed the lecture. Overall, the seminar provided valuable insights and motivated the attendees to consider entrepreneurship as a viable career path in rural settings.

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

On 13th March 2024, a seminar titled “Attmanirvar Nari” was held to celebrate International Women’s Day. The event took place at 12:00 pm and was attended by a large gathering of students and faculty members. The seminar focused on the theme of women’s empowerment and its relevance in the 20th century, bringing in two distinguished speakers, Smt. Chhanda Mukhopadhyay, a writer and researcher, and Smt. Rina Das Sarkar, a writer and former head teacher.

Smt. Chhanda Mukhopadhyay opened the seminar with an inspiring speech on the historical context and progress of women’s empowerment, emphasizing the importance of self-reliance for women. Following her address, Smt. Rina Das Sarkar shared her experiences in education and highlighted the role of education in building a more empowered society. Her insights into the evolution of women's roles resonated deeply with the audience.

The seminar was both insightful and motivational, encouraging the students and faculty to reflect on the importance of gender equality and the continuous journey towards empowerment for women in society. The session concluded with an interactive question answer, where students actively participated, making it a memorable celebration of International Women’s Day.

Report:

On June 5, 2024, a seminar celebrating World Environment Day was held with enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The event commenced at 12:00 pm with a tree plantation drive, symbolizing the institution's commitment to environmental conservation.

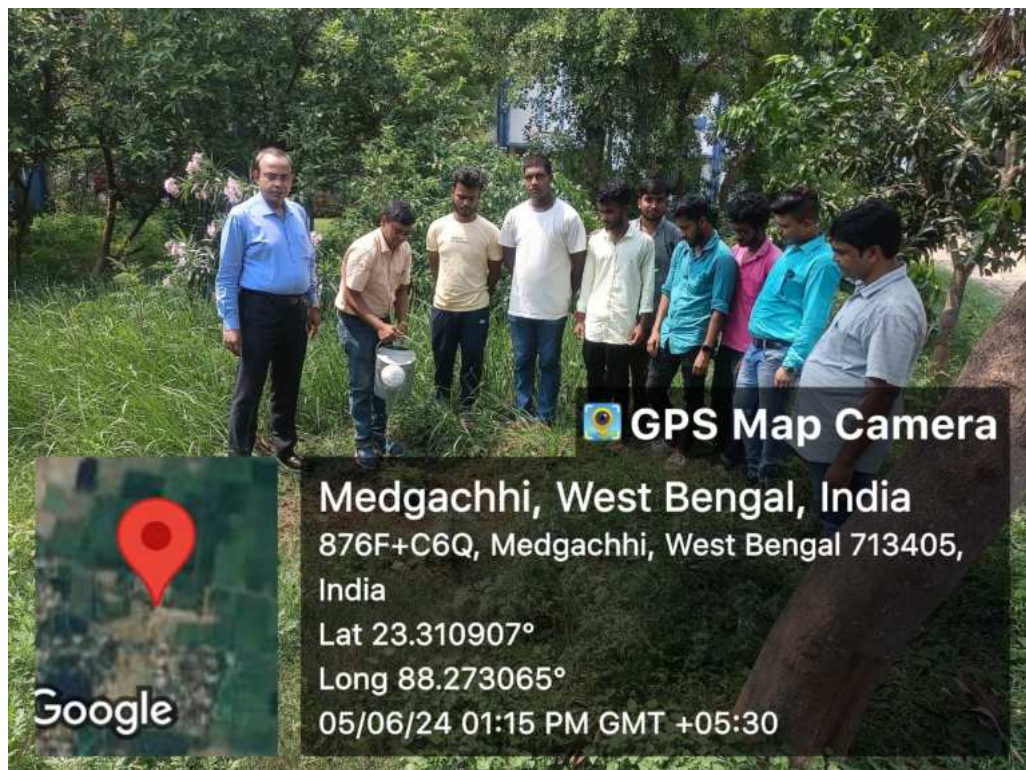

The highlight of the seminar was a visionary lecture delivered by Dr. Gautam Hazra, Associate Professor of Chemistry at Kalna College. Dr. Hazra's talk provided deep insights into the current environmental challenges and emphasized the role of sustainable practices in preserving the planet. His lecture was both inspiring and informative, leaving a lasting impact on the attendees.

Following the lecture, students engaged in an Extempore/Short Speech and Poster Presentation competition, showcasing their creativity and awareness on environmental issues. Many students shared unique perspectives, and the poster presentations were visually impactful, contributing to the day's success.

Overall, the seminar was an enriching experience, encouraging participants to think critically about environmental responsibility.

Programme Name: Seminar on World Yoga Day 2024

Date: 24.06.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

On June 24, 2024, a seminar celebrating World Yoga Day was held at 12:00 p.m., attracting enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The session was highlighted by a lecture from Dr. Banani Barman, Assistant Professor in the Department of Philosophy at P. R. Thakur Government College, who shared her insights on the transformative role of yoga in modern life.

Dr. Barman's lecture explored the ancient roots of yoga, connecting it with philosophical teachings that emphasize physical well-being, mental peace, and spiritual growth. She encouraged attendees to adopt yoga practices to enhance personal resilience, balance, and holistic health in daily life. Through her visionary address, she illustrated the powerful impact of yoga beyond physical exercise, presenting it as a way to cultivate harmony within oneself and the world.

A yoga session was conducted by Dr. Tanmay Mitra, Assistant Professor of Mathematics at GGDC Kalna-I, in the Gymnasium room. The event aimed to promote mental and physical well-being among participants, including students, faculty, and staff members. Dr. Mitra led the session with a focus on basic asanas and breathing exercises that help reduce stress, improve concentration, and enhance physical flexibility. Participants actively engaged in various postures and meditation techniques. Dr. Mitra also explained the science behind each exercise, making it relatable for students from all disciplines.

The seminar concluded with an interactive Q&A session, allowing students and faculty to discuss practical ways to integrate yoga into their routines. The event was well-received, enriching participants' understanding of yoga's significance and fostering a deeper appreciation for this ancient discipline.

Programme Name: Erudite Lecture

Date: 07.08.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

As part of the Induction Programme 2024, an insightful Erudite Lecture was held on August 7, 2024, from 12:30 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. The session featured Prof. Jayasri Ray Chaudhuri, former Director of Public Instruction, Department of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal, as the esteemed speaker. Students and faculty members from various departments attended the lecture, which aimed to welcome and orient new students to the academic and intellectual culture of the institution.

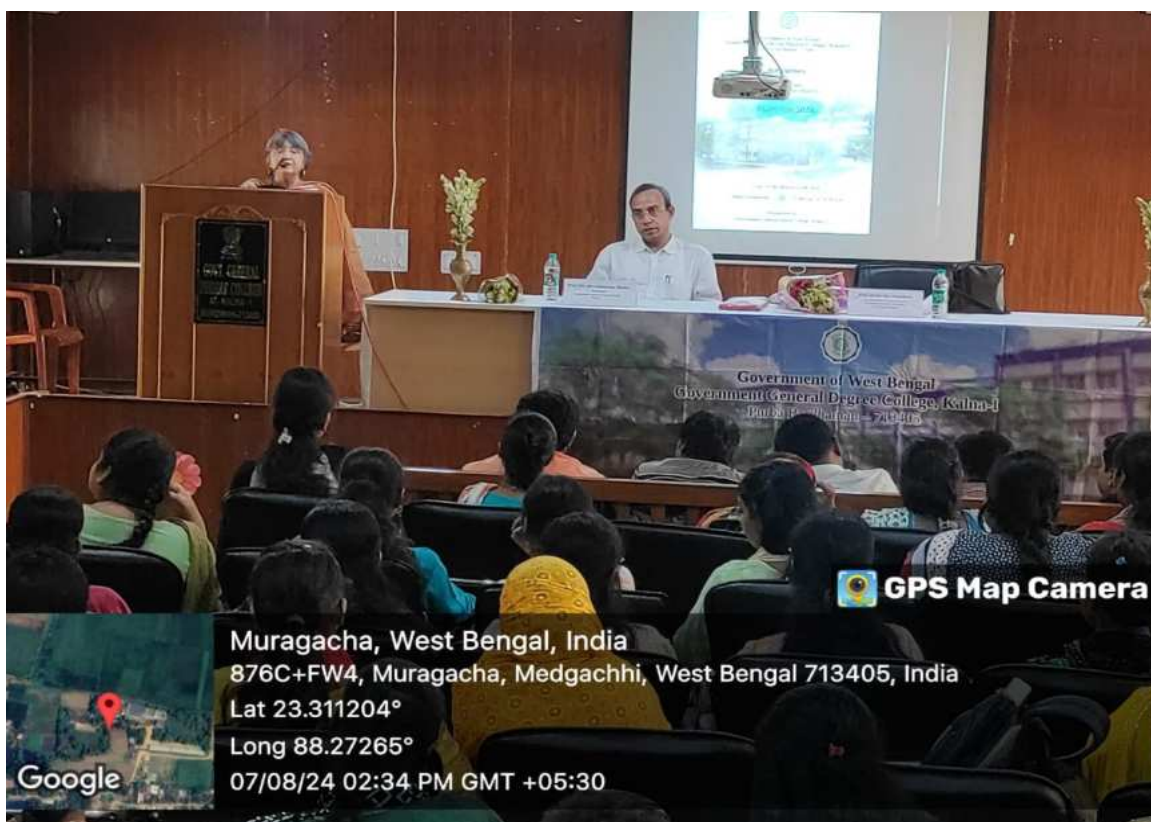

Prof. Ray Chaudhuri shared valuable insights drawn from her extensive experience in educational administration, emphasizing the importance of continuous learning, discipline, and active engagement in the learning process. Her words resonated with the audience, especially as she highlighted the transformative role of higher education in shaping students' lives and careers.

The lecture was well-received and marked a fitting start to the Induction Programme, inspiring both students and faculty to contribute positively to the academic community.

Date: 09.08.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

As part of the Induction Programme 2024 (Day-3), a seminar on "Women Empowerment and Self Defense – Interactive Session" was held on August 9, 2024, from 11:45 am to 1:00 pm. The seminar was graced by guest speaker Ms. Jinat Rehena Islam from Feminism Dot Com, who shared her insights on empowering women and the importance of self-defense skills.

The session was highly interactive, with Ms. Islam engaging the students and faculty members in discussions about societal challenges women face and practical steps for building self-confidence and personal safety skills. She also shared tools and strategies for women to assert their independence and navigate various social and professional settings.

Students and faculty members actively participated, making it a productive and inspiring session. The seminar not only provided valuable knowledge but also encouraged attendees to reflect on empowerment and personal safety as essential skills.

Programme Name: Seminar on “From School to College: A Comprehensive Walk”

Date: 13.08.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

As part of the Induction Programme 2024, a seminar titled “From School to College: A Comprehensive Walk” was organized on August 13, 2024, from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm. The session featured an insightful lecture by Prof. Sukanta Bhattacharyya, Principal of Mankar College, Purba Bardhaman, who shared his perspectives on the transition from school to college life.

Prof. Bhattacharyya's address highlighted the challenges and opportunities awaiting students as they embark on their college journey. He discussed the importance of adapting to new academic expectations, the value of independence, and the significance of personal growth during this pivotal phase. His lecture was both inspiring and informative, offering valuable guidance to students navigating this transition.

The seminar saw an enthusiastic response from both students and faculty members. The attendees expressed appreciation for Prof. Bhattacharyya's practical insights and visionary outlook, which helped them gain a deeper understanding of college life and its demands. The event was an enriching experience, concluding on a note of motivation and preparedness for the academic journey ahead.

Programme Name: Seminar on “Seminar on Women Empowerment through social Entrepreneurship”

Date: 27.09.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

On September 27, 2024, a seminar on "Women Empowerment through Social Entrepreneurship" was held at GGDCK-1, organized by the Women Empowerment Cell, Kanyashree Club, and IQAC of the college. The event was conducted in collaboration with the Entrepreneurship Development, Innovation & Incubation Centre – Swabalamban of BB College, Asansol. The seminar began at 12:00 pm and was attended by students, faculty members, and special guests.

The session focused on the significant role of social entrepreneurship in promoting women's empowerment, with speakers emphasizing the need for women to engage in entrepreneurial activities that drive social change and self-reliance. Experienced social entrepreneurs shared their insights on building sustainable ventures that address social issues, especially those affecting women. Discussions also covered the challenges women entrepreneurs often face and strategies to overcome them through supportive ecosystems like the Swabalamban initiative.

The seminar provided a platform for students to understand the impact of social entrepreneurship and inspired many to consider entrepreneurship as a pathway to empowerment and community betterment. Faculty members and students alike appreciated the program's relevance, which not only motivated participants but also broadened their perspectives on social change through entrepreneurship.

Programme Name: Seminar on “Workshop on Skill Enhancement & Carrier Counselling”

Date: 28.09.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall

Report:

On September 28, 2024, a workshop on "Skill Enhancement & Career Counseling" was successfully held at 2:00 pm, jointly organized by the Career Counseling and Placement Cell of GGDCK-1 and the George Telegraph Training Institute, Kolkata. The event was well-attended by students and faculty members, who were eager to learn more about career opportunities and skill development strategies.

The workshop provided valuable insights into the skills necessary for today's job market and offered guidance on how to align academic learning with professional goals such as hair cutting, beautician etc. Experts from George Telegraph Training Institute shared practical tips for enhancing employability, such as effective communication, time management, and resume-building techniques. They also highlighted current trends in various industries and the importance of ongoing skill enhancement in an evolving job landscape.

The event concluded with a Q&A session, where students actively engaged with the speakers, discussing their career aspirations and seeking personalized advice. Overall, the workshop was highly informative, motivating participants to pursue continuous skill development and proactive career planning.
